[16] St. Elizabeths Hospital is an institution placed by law under the supervision of the Secretary of the Interior.

[17] Freedmen's Hospital is an institution placed by law under the supervision of the Secretary of the Interior. It is maintained by receipts from the District of Columbia for indigent residents; receipts from the Federal Government for indigent residents of the States; and by receipts from pay patients. The cost of construction for most of the buildings has been borne by the Federal Government and of a few by the District of Columbia.

[18] Howard University is not a part of the Interior Department. It was incorporated by act of Congress of March 2, 1867, as "a university for the education of youth in liberal arts and sciences under the name style, and title of Howard University." The first appropriation to the university from the United States Government was made on March 3, 1879, and each year since Congress has continued to make appropriations for the maintenance and development of the university. Such appropriations are required to be expended under the supervision of the Secretary of the Interior. The total university budget for the fiscal year 1926–27 is $940,000, including $358,000 remaining of $370,000 appropriated by Congress for a new building for the medical college. This sum was approved by the Comptroller General as expendable after 1925–26, the year for which it was originally appropriated.

[19] Serves without additional compensation.

The Smithson fund has been increased by other bequests and gifts. The institution is legally an establishment having as its members the President of the United States, the Vice President, the Chief Justice, and the President's Cabinet. It is governed by a board of regents consisting of the Vice President, the Chief Justice, three Members of the United States Senate, three Members of the House of Representatives, and six citizens of the United States appointed by joint resolution of Congress, all of whom serve without compensation. COLUMBIA INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF

Patron ex officio.—Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States.
President.—Percival Hall, Kendall Green, Washington, D. C.
Directors.—Wesley L. Jones, Senator from Washington; Addison T. Smith, Representative from Idaho; Sol Bloom, Representative from New York; Theodore W. Noyes, Frederic A. Delano, Howard L. Hodgkins, and Vernon Kellogg, citizens of the District of Columbia; Ernest G. Draper, citizen of New York; William E. Humphrey, citizen of Washington; the president and the secretary of the institution.
Secretary.—Rev. Ulysses G. B. Pierce, Washington, D. C.
Treasurer.—H. Ralph Burton, Washington, D. C.

Columbia Institution for the Deaf is a corporation established in 1857 by private enterprise. It is now maintained by direct appropriations by Congress, by tuition fees, and by endowment. The act of Congress in 1857 incorporating the institution allowed $150 per annum from the United States Treasury for each indigent pupil from the District of Columbia. In 1858 Congress granted $3,000 a year for five years for salaries and incidental expenses of the institution, and authorized free admission of deaf and dumb or blind children of men in the military or naval service of the United States. In 1865 Congress provided for the transfer of the blind children and removed the words "and the blind" from the corporate name of the institution. In 1864 Congress authorized the institution to confer collegiate degrees. With this new departure Congress made a considerable increase in its annual grants and provided that a limited number of students be admitted to the collegiate department from the several States and Territories free of charge. The number of students thus admitted free was at first 10; the number has been increased by acts of Congress until now it is 125. In 1887 the college was opened to young women and in 1891 a department for the training of hearing teachers of the deaf was established.

It is supported through their joint contributions, each nation annually paying that part of the budget of expenses which its population bears to the total population of all the Republics. Its general control is vested in a governing board made up of the diplomatic representatives in Washington of all the Latin-American Governments and the Secretary of State of the United States. It is strictly international in its scope, purpose, and control, and each nation has equal authority in its administration. The Pan American Union occupies and owns a monumental building on extensive grounds in Washington, D. C., overlooking the White House park.
